Commissioner’s analysis and findings

1. The Council acknowledged that it had not responded to Mrs R’s requirement for review within the statutory timescale.

2. The Council confirmed that a response would be issued to Mrs R: this had not been done by the time of this decision.

3. Section 21(1) of FOISA gives Scottish public authorities a maximum of 20 working days following the date of receipt of the requirement to comply with a requirement for review. This is subject to qualifications which are not relevant in this case.

4. It is a matter of fact that the Council did not provide a response to Mrs R’s requirement for review within 20 working days, so the Commissioner finds that it failed to comply with section 21(1) of FOISA.

5. The remainder of section 21 sets out the requirements to be followed by a Scottish public authority in carrying out a review. As no review has been carried out in this case, the Commissioner finds that the Council failed to discharge these requirements: she now requires a review to be carried out in accordance with section 21.

DECISION

The Commissioner finds that Stirling Council (the Council) failed to comply with Part 1 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA) in responding to the information request made by Mrs R. In particular, the Council failed to respond to Mr R’s requirement for review within the timescale laid down by section 21(1) of FOISA.

The Commissioner requires the Council to provide Mrs R with a response to her requirement for review, by Monday 24 March 2014.
Appeal

Should either Mrs R or Stirling Council wish to appeal against this decision, they have the right to appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only. The appeal must be made within 42 days after the date of intimation of this decision.
